

Tennant Parts

Tennant Parts - The Tennant Company offers solutions in marketing individualized for the many industries they serve. They are a leading company in the manufacturing and design of products particular for creating a safer and cleaner world. Among the company's main things comprise equipment used to maintain outdoor and indoor surfaces, equipment and financing service, components and maintenance.

Tennant has their company headquarters situated in Minneapolis, USA. They are a worldwide company who has worldwide marketing and manufacturing operations. Their European headquarters are situated in Antwerp, Belgium and the business offers several employment alternatives all over the globe. Company stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol TNC. More information can be seen by visiting Investor Relations.

During the last thirty years, Tennant has had numerous successes. One of these successes occurred during the year 1990, when Tennant won the Seven Wonders of the World award for their Eco line of non-solvent coatings. Four years later, in the year 1994, Tennant bought the brands of Castex and Nobles. This acquisition extended their commercial floor cleaning capabilities. In the year 1995, Tennant acquired the Eagle Floor Care Line of propane burnishers. By the year 2000, Tennant became listed on the New York Stock Exchange. In 2002, the business launched a new product for hard floor surfaces referred to as FaST. It utilized a lesser amount of water and provides a quick drying time. By the year 2003, market coverage was extended in Japan, China and Europe. Tennant launches a new product in 2004 known as ReadySpace, which offers quick-drying carpet technology.